PREFACE

In order to provide greater transparency and accountability in the functioning of “Public Authorities”, The Right to Information Act, 2005(RTI) has been enacted by the Government of India. This Act entitles the citizens to obtain information pertaining to public authorities, subject to compliance with prescribed procedure under RTI Act, 2005. The Act has been notified on June 15, 2005. In compliance with the provisions of Section 4(1) (b) of the Act, this information manual is published for information of the general public.

CHAPTER 1 - INTRODUCTION

BACKGROUND

In order to ensure transparency and accountability in the functioning of public authorities and with a view to confer right on citizens for obtaining information pertaining to functioning of public authorities, the Information Act, 2005(hereinafter referred to as “RTI” or “Act”) has been enacted. Section 4(1)(b) of the Act confers right on citizens to obtain information pertaining to functioning of public authorities and for this purpose every public authority is required to appoint Public Information Officer(s) Assistant State Public Information Officer(s), Wherever applicable, for processing of information requests from citizens. Under any circumstances if the citizen could not get the information sought for by him, he may approach the appellate authority.

OBJECTIVE OF THE HAND BOOK

The essence of good governance is based on the premise that the laws and procedures are transparent, clearly defined & understood by those governed and the implementation is both quick and smooth. Transparency connotes the conduct of public business in a manner that affords stakeholders wide accessibility to the decision-making process and the ability to effectively influence it. In the context of urban governance, transparency assumes added significance. The Key objective behind publication of this information manual is to enable the public to understand the role played by the Department in the Urban Governance by the Government of Andhra Pradesh. The citizens are entitled under the Act, to obtain any information prescribed under the Act from the Department. The procedure for obtaining information from the Department is prescribed in the following paragraphs.

TARGETED USERS

This manual is meant for information of citizens, civil society organizations, public representatives, officers and employees of public authorities.
